GLARE

(By United Press)
New York, Dec. 16.—Six persons perished today when flames of suspicious origin swept through an apartment house near the Mount Sinai Hospital. Survivors of ten families were driven into the streets in near zero weather. Patients in the hospital, alarmed by the glare of the fire, were quieted by prompt action of nurses and doctors.

Those who escaped from the roaring inferno into which the flames quickly converted the five-story tenement reported that the fire seemed to have started under the front stairs where a baby carriage was kept.

The location of the disastrous blaze is in that part of Harlem known as the "pyromaniac district." A madman who set fire to baby carriages was responsible for the loss of a score of lives in the neighborhood a year or so ago.

Only one of the six victims was identified. He was Edward Russell, 64, who was driven from the window by flames and fell to the street to his death. Three women are among the unidentified victims. The other two were so badly burned it was at first impossible to determine the sex.

Mrs. Esther Goodman, who was trapped on the fourth floor with two small children, fought her way through the smoke and flames to a rear fire escape and dropped a son seven years old and a daughter two years old to the ground. She was badly burned and was taken to a nearby hospital.

Miss Ida Goldberg, a boarder who was on the fourth floor, fell in a hallway when smoke poured up from the stairs and is believed to have perished in the ruins. Mrs. Mingie McShane, another woman, was missing when the occupants were checked over.

Forty-four occupants escaped from the burning tenement, while two firemen nearly lost their lives effecting rescues in the rear of the building.

Added suspicion that the fire originated with a pyromaniac was lent by the rapidity with which the flames first swept through the tenement.

Edward Russell's death came about in tragic fashion. The old man, who recently had been ill with pneumonia, was found hanging by his hands to the ledge of a window from which flames were shooting. Firemen on a roof above rushed to the edge and threw him a rope. Instead of passing it about his body he attempted to swing by his hands. Weakened by illness and burns, he lost his grip and fell to the street.

James McShane, keeper in a West Side prison, got his two children safely out of the tenement. His wife turned back for some insurance papers and is believed to have been among the victims.

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 16.—A St. Paul man will be arrested here within 12 hours for the $310,000 holdup of the Northwestern Mutual Bank in Milwaukee December 8, Detective John Douschek, Milwaukee, declared today.

St. Paul police and five Milwaukee detectives tightened the net about the man, who slipped through their fingers last night in a raid on an apartment house in downtown St. Paul. His identity was established by the proprietor of the rooming house, Detective Douschek said.

The man wanted for the Milwaukee robbery was arrested in Minneapolis four years ago charged with participation in the shooting of a man in a garage during an alleged hijacking expedition. He gave his name at that time as Mathew McNeil.

A John Doe warrant for his arrest was issued in Milwaukee at noon today and a telegraphic warrant sent here. The search for the man has been turned over to St. Paul and Minneapolis police. Milwaukee detectives will leave tonight for Milwaukee.

He ran for congressman in the sixth Virginia district in 1884. Two years later he moved to Duluth and has been a Minnesota resident since then. After living in Duluth three years he was elected municipal judge. In 1894 he was elected county attorney of St. Louis county and in 1895 he became district court judge in the Duluth district. After serving a year he resigned to take a seat in congress, where he served until 1903, when he was appointed a judge of the United States district court for Minnesota.

He was on the federal bench for 20 years. He resigned almost a year ago because of ill health.

Long before the Volstead Act became law Judge Morris won a reputation as the terror of liquor law violators. During his 20 years on the bench he fined illegal liquor sellers more than $1,000,000 and during his last year on the bench he imposed fines aggregating $200,000 on bootleggers. He sentenced more bootleggers to jail than any other judge.

Rochester, Minn., Dec. 16.—Judge Page Morris, who sent more bootleggers to jail than any other federal judge in the United States during his incumbency, died here today.

He served 20 years on the federal bench in Minnesota and was known as the terror of liquor law violators. He retired from the bench almost a year ago because of ill health. Two months ago he was operated upon for relief from gallstones by Dr. W. J. Mayo.

Death came at 9 a. m. today. Mrs. Morris, her daughter, Mrs. David Williams of Duluth, and Mr. Williams were at the bedside when the judge passed away.

Dr. William J. Mayo had attended Judge Morris.

In 1877 Page Morris married Miss Elizabeth Statham of Lynchburg, and in 1879 he returned to that city to complete his law course, being admitted to the bar in 1880. He at once began the practice of law and soon was a factor in politics.

CRUISER RETURNS
WITH PROOF OF
MURDER OF WOMANWARRANT ISSUED FOR TRAPPER
CHARGED WITH KILLING
MRS. ELSIE WHEELERNEW TURN IN ANGLE COUNTRY
MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF BRIDE

(From Minneapolis Journal)
Heavily armed and provisioned for a long chase, four men went, out across the ice of Lake of the Woods Saturday, with a warrant for the arrest of Tony Reamer, war veteran and trapper, charged with the murder of Mrs. Elsie Wheeler of Kansas, on her honeymoon in a frontier cabin of the Northwest Angle, just a month ago. E. G. Middleton, county attorney at Baudette, Minn., signed the warrant.

It was based on information brought back by an aged timber cruiser who went into the frozen forests of Minnesota's last frontier as a detective, after a frontier jury of pioneers had said that Mrs. Wheeler was accidentally killed.

Stained Towel on Wall
Silent records of the frontier tragedy, a blood stained towel and a few strands of a woman's hair, lay in the county attorney's office at Baudette, brought out of the north woods by the cruiser. They will be sent to the University of Minnesota for examination and analysis of the blood-stains upon the towel.

The bloodstained towel was found hanging on the wall in the cabin where Mrs. Wheeler was slain. Stains and strands of hair on the towel were turned inward, against the wall, so that none of the previous investigators noticed them.

"It looked as though some weapon had been wiped on the towel, to get rid of bloodstains," Mr. Middleton said Saturday.

Kansas authorities, working with County Attorney Middleton, who directed the old woodsman's search, aided in gathering information which led to issuance of the warrant.

Northwest Mounted Police, stationed just across the mythical line which bisects Lake of the Woods, have been notified the posse has started for the Northwest Angle, and will be asked to take up the chase if the trail leads into Canada.

No one knows where Reamer will be found. The old woodsman reported he had talked to him a week ago, in a cabin almost on the Canadian border, miles north of the cabin where Mrs. Wheeler was slain.

Deputies were to go as far as possible across the ice by automobile. Somewhere out on the lake, they will abandon the automobile, and go ahead on foot to the northern shore. From there, they will go on by dog-team.

Reamer is 27 years old, a war veteran, Mr. Middleton said.

Went North Two Years Ago
"He at one time worked in the harvest fields of Kansas, we are told, and is believed to have worked for Mrs. Wheeler's father on the 400-acre farm near Clearwater, Kan., which she inherited a week before her marriage to Dean Wheeler," he said. "He was acquainted with the Wheelers."

Reamer first went into the Northwest Angle country two years ago. He has worked in the woods and at Warroad ever since.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Republican leaders in the Senate, who weeks ago announced they would attempt to put through Muscle Shoals legislation at this session, have changed their minds and defeat of the Underwood bill now pending seems probable.

Their plan now is to adopt the proposal of Senator Jones of Washington, which would put the question of whether the government or private corporation should operate the big $150,000,000 power plant in the hands of an impartial commission, which would study the situation and report back to Congress next December.

Mt. Vernon, Ill., Dec. 16.—The confession of Elsie Sweetin was ruled out as testimony in the case today by Judge J. C. Kern.

Judge Kern ruled that Mrs. Sweetin signed the confession under duress and that her constitutional rights had been violated in obtaining the document.

It was a smashing victory for Mrs. Sweetin's attorneys—not for the complete case, for both she and Lawrence Hight, indicted with her, are fighting separate battles for freedom. For two days Mrs. Sweetin has tried to block every move of the state to present the confession.

Monday Mrs. Sweetin was on the stand twice and told that she signed the confession only after Hight had frightened her by saying a mob was outside waiting for them.

The telegram added the important news that the difficult retreat from Zoco Abaa has been completed with little fighting, meaning that 40,000 men have been safely extricated along the narrow mountain road.

Primo Rivera's telegram, which was sent from his headquarters at Tetuan where I interviewed him 10 days ago, said:

"It is true that the Moors captured Alcazar Seguer. Natives betrayed our troops. Twelve of them were killed, two officers being taken prisoner. The situation will be re-established shortly."

BRIDE

(From Minneapolis Journal)
Heavily armed and provisioned for a long chase, four men went out across the ice of Lake of the Woods Saturday, with a warrant for the arrest of Tony Reamer, war veteran and trapper, charged with the murder of Mrs. Elsie Wheeler of Kansas, on her honeymoon in a frontier cabin of the Northwest Angle, just a month ago. E. G. Middleton, county attorney at Baudette, Minn., signed the warrant.

It was based on information brought back by an aged timber cruiser who went into the frozen forests of Minnesota's last frontier as a detective, after a frontier jury of pioneers had said that Mrs. Wheeler was accidentally killed.

Stained Towel on Wall
Silent records of the frontier tragedy, a blood stained towel and a few strands of a woman's hair, lay in the county attorney's office at Baudette, brought out of the north woods by the cruiser. They will be sent to the University of Minnesota for examination and analysis of the blood-stains upon the towel.

The bloodstained towel was found hanging on the wall in the cabin where Mrs. Wheeler was slain. Stains and strands of hair on the towel were turned inward, against the wall, so that none of the previous investigators noticed them.

"It looked as though some weapon had been wiped on the towel, to get rid of bloodstains," Mr. Middleton said Saturday.

Kansas authorities, working with County Attorney Middleton, who directed the old woodsman's search, aided in gathering information which led to issuance of the warrant.

Northwest Mounted Police, stationed just across the mythical line which bisects Lake of the Woods, have been notified the posse has started for the Northwest Angle, and will be asked to take up the chase if the trail leads into Canada.

No one knows where Reamer will be found. The old woodsman reported he had talked to him a week ago, in a cabin almost on the Canadian border, miles north of the cabin where Mrs. Wheeler was slain.

Deputies were to go as far as possible across the ice by automobile. Somewhere out on the lake, they will abandon the automobile, and go ahead on foot to the northern shore. From there, they will go on by dog-team.

Reamer is 27 years old, a war veteran, Mr. Middleton said.

Went North Two Years Ago
"He at one time worked in the harvest fields of Kansas, we are told, and is believed to have worked for Mrs. Wheeler's father on the 400-acre farm near Clearwater, Kan., which she inherited a week before her marriage to Dean Wheeler," he said. "He was acquainted with the Wheelers."

Reamer first went into the Northwest Angle country two years ago. He has worked in the woods and at Warroad ever since.

ED IN TOWN OF KALGAN

(By United Press)
Pekin, Dec. 16.—Chinese soldiers mutinied at Kalgan Monday during the absence of their commanders, burned three business blocks and plundered stores, the postoffice and bank.

Several American firms, including the Standard Oil company and Liggett & Myers, were heavy losers. Lives of Americans and other foreigners were spared but several shots were fired.

American citizens at Kalgan, which is an independent business city 25 miles northwest of Peking, gathered official reports of the affair today, emphasizing its seriousness.

Repetition of looting tonight was feared.

The foreign legations have been requested by the Peking government to rush troops to restore order.

AMERICAN MARINES ORDERED TO KALGAN

Pekin, Dec. 16.—Twenty picked American marines were ordered to proceed to Kalgan, 125 miles northwest of here at 5 a. m. tomorrow to protect the lives of American citizens endangered by a mutiny of Chinese troops.

The Chinese government assured the American legation that the "situation was well in hand," but the drastic action of rushing marines to Kalgan was decided upon regardless of assurances.

UNDERWOOD BILL, ON MUSCLE SHOALS, MAY NOT PASS

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 16.—Republican leaders in the Senate, who weeks ago announced they would attempt to put through Muscle Shoals legislation at this session, have changed their minds and defeat of the Underwood bill now pending seems probable.

Their plan now is to adopt the proposal of Senator Jones of Washington, which would put the question of whether the government or private corporation should operate the big $150,000,000 power plant in the hands of an impartial commission, which would study the situation and report back to Congress next December.

CONFESSION OF ELSIE SWEETIN IS RULED OUT

JUDGE J. C. KERN TAKES SUCH ACTION IN MT. VERNON, ILL.,
TRIAL

JURIST SAYS SHE SIGNED THE SAME UNDER STRESS

(By United Press)
Mt. Vernon, Ill., Dec. 16.—The confession of Elsie Sweetin was ruled out as testimony in the case today by Judge J. C. Kern.

Judge Kern ruled that Mrs. Sweetin signed the confession under duress and that her constitutional rights had been violated in obtaining the document.

It was a smashing victory for Mrs. Sweetin's attorneys—not for the complete case, for both she and Lawrence Hight, indicted with her, are fighting separate battles for freedom. For two days Mrs. Sweetin has tried to block every move of the state to present the confession.

Monday Mrs. Sweetin was on the stand twice and told that she signed the confession only after Hight had frightened her by saying a mob was outside waiting for them.

Milwaukee, Dec. 16.—Dr. Charles C. Schad, a local dentist, has been signed to coach Marquette university's freshman basketball squad. Schad formerly lived in Freeport, Ill.

SPANISH RETREAT OF 40,000 MEN SAFELY MADE

REPORTED TRUE THAT MOORS
CAPTURED ALCAZAR
SEQUER

NATIVES, SAYS REPORT, BE-TRAYED THE SPANISH TROOPS

(By United Press)
Paris, Dec. 16.—General Miguel Primo Rivera, head of the Spanish directory, who is taking personal charge of the campaign against the Rifians in Morocco, today sent a telegram setting at rest the sensational stories in the European press that Tetuan and its connecting railroad was menaced by fresh Moorish uprisings at Lizar Seguru.

The telegram added the important news that the difficult retreat from Zoco Abaa has been completed with little fighting, meaning that 40,000 men have been safely extricated along the narrow mountain road.

Primo Rivera's telegram, which was sent from his headquarters at Tetuan where I interviewed him 10 days ago, said:

"It is true that the Moors captured Alcazar Seguer. Natives betrayed our troops. Twelve of them were killed, two officers being taken prisoner. The situation will be re-established shortly."

REBELS TOOK KROJA, AND NOW ADVANCE TROOPS

TIRANA SLATED TO BE NEXT OB-JECTIVE OF AT-TACK

ANOTHER DISPATCH SAYS SCU-TARI HAS BEEN CAP-TURED

(By United Press)
Rome, Dec. 16.—The revolution in Albania has reached dangerous proportions, according to advices here today.

Rebels captured Kroja during the night and are advancing toward Tirana. Another dispatch said the rebels had captured Scutari.

Martial law has been declared through South Albania, according to advices from Salonika, and the rebellion has drawn support from Catholic tribes.

At Tirana a court has condemned Ex-Premier Ahmed Zogu, Vryonis and Achmet Feriatzi, to 10 years' imprisonment and confiscated their properties for the state.

A direct dispatch from Tirana today says:

"Rebel bands crossed the northern frontier, well-equipped with machine guns and artillery and are advancing in the direction of six towns." Belgrade advices said Ex-Premier Ahmed Zogu is leading the revolution to recapture power lost during the rebellion last spring.

The uprising is purely an internal affair, although Zogu is using some mercenaries. Neighboring nations have agreed on a hands off policy.

MILL CITY RADIO AMATEUR 'TALKS' TO ANTIPODES STATION

Minneapolis, Dec. 16.—Spanning 8,000 miles, Don C. Wallace, Minneapolis radio amateur, Sunday established direct communication with a New Zealand station.

Mr. Wallace, who lives at 54 Penn avenue north, holds the 1923 Hoover amateur radio cup. Sunday he also talked with an amateur in Cuba and another in Bermuda.

He was in touch with the New Zealand station for 35 minutes, starting at 5:40 a. m. The distant station was Z4AG operated by Ralph Salde of Dunedin, New Zealand.

Will Containing Eight Words Disposes of Man's Estate of $1,500,000

Pittsburgh, Dec. 16.—A will filed here contained eight words, the shortest ever recorded here and disposed of an estate valued at $1,500,000.

The will, that of the late John Andrew Beck, financier, a board member of a score of banks and oil and gas companies, read:

"All my belongings I leave to my family."

Washington, Dec. 16.—Weather outlook for the week beginning yesterday: Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, cold most of the week, mostly fair except snow about Tuesday or Wednesday.

HOUGH GETS LIFE SENTENCE

REPLIES IN UNUSUAL MANNER TO QUESTION OF TRIAL
JUDGE

Bedford, Iowa, Dec. 16.—Carl Hough, recently convicted of the murder of his sweetheart, Lillian McKinney, Herrick, S. D., was sentenced to life imprisonment in district court here today.

After sentence was pronounced the court asked Hough if he had anything to say.

"Not a damn thing; you said it all," the prisoner remarked.

The policeman, hearing the shot, burst into the fashionable apartment. Crying before him on the floor was the crumpled figure of a woman, weeping hysterically, a smoking pistol clutched in her trembling fingers.

"My husband! Oh my husband!" she moaned.

"Control yourself, lady," urged the officer. "Where is the corpse?" "Gone," sobbed the woman. "He went out through the window. I—I missed him."—American Legion Weekly.

AT THE ROTARY THIS WEEK

Dr. R. A. Beise to Speak on Health Topic, Boy Scout to Give Conference Experiences

MISS CORA RICKARD TO SING

Miss Clara Hjerpe and Miss Mildred Venosick to Tell of Night Classes for Foreigners

At this week's meeting of the Rotary club Dr. R. A. Beise will speak on health matters; a Boy Scout will attend the St. Paul meeting will tell of his experiences there; Miss Cora Rickard, teacher of music in city schools, will sing; Miss Clara Hjerpe and Miss Mildred Venosick will explain the nature of the work they are doing in the evening classes for foreigners.

Last week's former President H. F. Michael presided.

Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, who attended the state meeting of the League of Women Voters, told of the meeting and the efforts the women are making towards the adoption of the proposed child labor amendment to the U. S. constitution. As related by her, the organizations supporting the movement outnumbered those who were opposed to it. She gave statistics and records of states having child labor laws and those deficient in such enlightened legislation. She referred to methods alleged to be used by certain manufacturers in evading child labor laws.

Rev. E. A. Deakes of the Baptist church spoke on the value of steadfastness and while he did not use the Rotary phrase of Service above Self, the idea was to stick to your principles without wavering. He paid a tribute to the Old Testament and the many illuminating texts it carried.

G. W. Chadbourne was to have spoken on insurance topics, but was sick at home and unable to attend.

Two new members adopted were Superintendent J. P. Anderson of the Northern Pacific railway shops, and F. B. Johnson, Brainerd's new druggist. Mr. Anderson was introduced by George Lowe and Mr. Johnson by Wm. Spencer.

The Hibbing conference is set for April 23 and 24 and Governor Flynn wishes Brainerd to be represented 100 per cent. Hibbing is expected to have a program even better than that of Bismarck of last year.

Brainerd Rotary may establish a "Century" list, the roll containing the names of those attending 100 meetings in succession.

AUTO DEATHS DURING 1924 ARE PLACED AT 22,600

Washington, Dec. 26.—More than 22,000 persons were killed and 678,000 injured in street and highway accidents throughout the nation during 1924.

This was revealed today as city, highway and police authorities gathered here with representatives of automobile and insurance companies in an effort to lessen the toll of the deadly automobile and the grade crossing.

Labor and civic organizations will co-operate in an effort to lessen the tremendous toll. Secretary of Commerce Hoover called the conference to draft a national policy to guide cities and states in campaigns to cut down the ever increasing lists of accidents and eliminate street and highway congestion.

Lack of uniformity among traffic rules in cities will be one of the principal topics. An attempt will be made to arrive at a uniform code for city streets and rural highways.

Special attention will be given to the problem of reckless and incompetent driving. An effort will be made to get all states to pass laws requiring automobile drivers to carry licenses which can be obtained only after passing a rigid examination.

Hoover believes the traffic deaths will continue to increase until some drastic action is taken to relieve the situation. With 12,000,000 cars in active operation on streets designed mostly for horse traffic, the menace to life and property is increasing even faster than the number of vehicles, he holds.

AT PRESBYTERIAN CONFERENCE HERE

Rev. A. G. Patterson, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Here, Relates Experiences

A HISTORY-MAKING MEETING

More Than a Thousand Delegates Present, Women Being One-third of Membership

Rev. A. G. Patterson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has returned from Chicago where he attended the conference of his denomination, which closed Friday evening.

This conference was a history-making event in the Presbyterian church and will long be remembered by those who attended. The sessions were held in the cathedral-like Fourth Presbyterian church and more than one thousand delegates, both men and women, were present, representing one-third of the membership of the denomination.

Dr. W. C. Covert, general secretary of the board of education, was the presiding officer. The moderator of the general assembly delivered the keynote sermon—a plea for the church's greatest task, the need for the redemption of the soul through Jesus Christ.

One of the most outstanding addresses was delivered by Will H. Hayes, president of the motion picture producers and distributors of America. He was like a prophet of old, says Rev. Patterson, pleading for the old minister. Mr. Hayes heads a committee of fifteen laymen who have undertaken the raising of fifteen million dollars that the old ministers may be provided for.

Dr. Henry C. Swearingen, pastor of the House of Hope Presbyterian church, St. Paul, spoke for the general council, giving the mind of the council on organization and program to the mind of the church.

One of the most impressive services was the communion conducted by Rev. William Foulkes. The closing address was given by Robert E. Speer, the denomination's leading statesman.

The Presbyterian church will raise $15,000,000 for benevolences this year, said Rev. Patterson, and the budget for next year is $17,227,000. Rev. William Barr of Elbow Lake and Rev. Patterson represented the Red River Presbytery at the Chicago conference.

ADULT CHIGGER NOT DANGEROUS TO MAN

Washington, Dec. 16.—The adult chigger has been isolated, experimented with and petted by Dr. H. E. Ewing of the Smithsonian Institution here. He has discovered that they are only troublesome to man in a very early state and when grown make nice household pets.

Unfortunately, his chigger, which he raised from a mite, produced young which had the usual annoying characteristics. In his long study of the chiggers he has found that they need a great deal of water to live, being almost amphibious. As a result of his experiments the ordinary American chigger has been exonerated in the matter of carrying diseases. The Japanese, chigger, however, is held responsible for spreading flood fever.

He has another rather risky pet in a California tarantula which he keeps in a cage. He finds that the animal is not dangerous to handle if he is approached quietly and not frightened. Dr. Ewing has been feeding him grasshoppers and cockroaches on which he seems to thrive.

THE NEW YORK WORLD AND THE PROPOSED 20TH AMENDMENT

THE New York World, under date of December 8, takes a decided stand against the proposed 20th Amendment regarding child labor. The Dispatch publishes excerpts of the same so as to give the view of this democratic newspaper.

Conclusions reached by The World are these: "After careful consideration it has come to the conclusion that it is not necessary and may be highly undesirable. That it will oppose any further advance like it which involves the regulation from Washington of personal lives and local affairs, except on the proof of overwhelming necessity. In that position the World believes itself to be standing for the preservation of a liberal democracy and against the growth of imperialism."

In opposing ratification of the Twentieth Amendment, "The World recognizes the educative effect upon public opinion of the Federal Child Labor Laws and of the campaign for the amendment itself. They have helped enormously without a doubt to induce the States to improve their own laws. That campaign of education should go on, regardless of the fate of the Twentieth Amendment. Backward States should be made to feel the criticism of a national opinion. Progressive States should be advertised to the Nation. Such a campaign of education can in our opinion be promoted best by the following program:

"Let Congress pass for the District of Columbia a children's code which can be held up as a model to the States. Such a code will without any of the dangers of centralization establish a national standard.

"Let the State Legislatures in refusing to ratify the Twentieth Amendment memorialize the President to call a meeting of the Governors of the forty-eight States to discuss the problem of child protection and to adopt a Minimum Standard Code to be recommended by them to the States."

"The World offers the program to the Governor and Legislature of New York.

"The Twentieth Amendment to the Constitution, which does not appeal to The New York World, reads as follows:

"Section 1.—The Congress shall have the power to limit, regulate and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age.
"Section 2.—The power of the several States is unimpaired by this article except that the operation of State laws shall be suspended to the extent necessary to give effect to legislation enacted by Congress."

This amendment was passed in the House on April 26, 1924, by a vote of 297 to 69. It was passed in the Senate on June 2 by a vote of 61 to 23. To adopt the amendment thirty-six States must ratify. Thus far three State Legislatures have acted. One State, Arkansas, has ratified. Two States, Georgia and North Carolina, have refused to ratify. There are, therefore, thirty-five ratifications still required. The Legislatures of forty States meet in January, 1925. The question of the adoption of the amendment comes directly before the people of the country in the next few weeks.

The question is whether Congress shall be given the power to "limit, regulate and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age." Once, in 1916, under the interstate commerce clause, and again, in 1919, under the taxing power, Congress has attempted child-labor legislation. The Supreme Court declared both laws unconstitutional, and this amendment is an attempt to confer directly upon Congress the power it twice attempted to vainly exercise by indirection. Except as to methods of enforcement, the two Federal acts were the same. They prohibited the employment of a child under fourteen in any mill, factory, cannery, workshop, manufacturing or mechanical establishment, or of a child under sixteen in any mine or quarry, or in any dangerous, injurious or immoral occupation.

The standards in these Federal laws represented a minimum of legal protection against child labor. The Women's Committee for the Children's Amendment says that only thirteen States measure up in all respects to the conservative standards of the first and second Federal child-labor laws:

Nine States have no law prohibiting all children under fourteen from working in both factories and stores.

Twenty-three States with a fourteen-year minimum age limit have weakened their laws by permitting exemptions under which children not yet fourteen may work.

Fourteen States allow children to go to work without a common school education.

Eleven States allow children under sixteen to work from nine to eleven hours a day; one State does not regulate in any way daily hours of labor of children.

Four States do not protect children under sixteen from night work.

These, as admitted by The New York World, are serious evils which urgently call for a remedy. The question is, how can it best be secured, by individual action of States, and some have shown themselves lamentably deficient in any action whatever, or shall it be by an amendment to the Constitution.

MOODY AND CALIFORNIA

THE DISPATCH editorial about George W. Moody, former court reporter, who will return to Minnesota to again make his home at Brainerd because California vegetables and porterhouse steaks are not like the kind they have in Brainerd has been commented on like this by the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press of recent date:

"California may have climate, such as it is, but that is about all, according to George W. Moody, a boy of Sauk Rapids, and later a resident of Brainerd where he was court reporter. George is coming back from California where he has resided for a few years, and his reason is that he wants to enjoy a good satisfying meal.

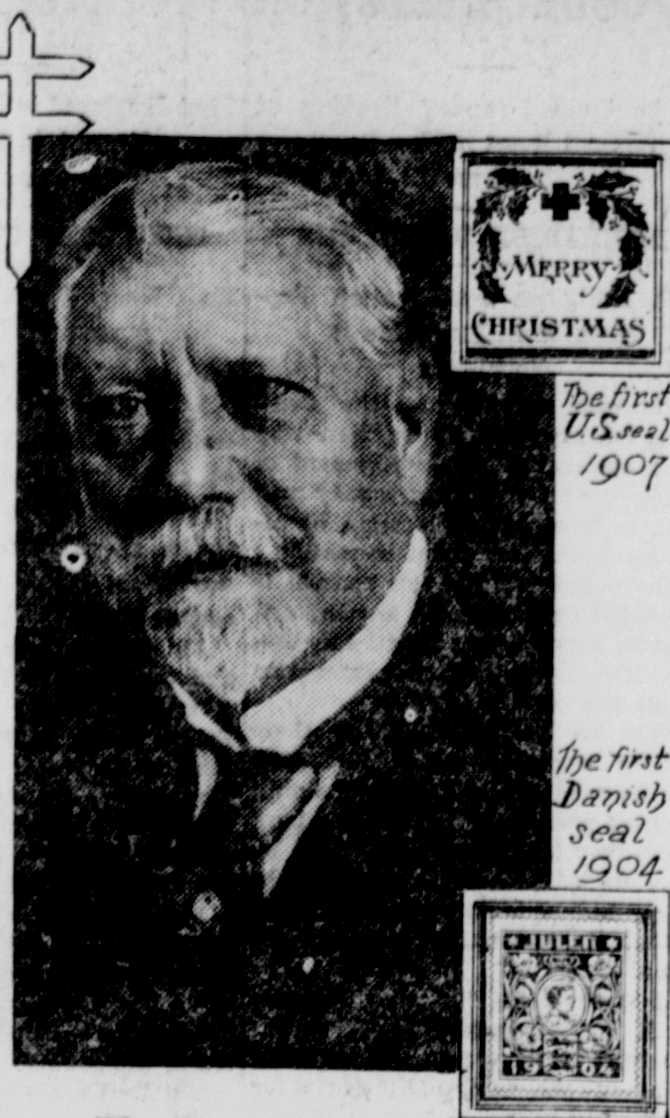

"He says he has not had a tasty vegetable since he has been in the Sunset state. The potatoes are punk, the turnips tepid, the squashes squashy, the beets beefy, and onions odoriferous and nothing else, and the radishes rank. And so George is coming back to his native state, where the potatoes are perfect, the turnips triumphant, the beets the best, the onions o. k., and radishes rich and racy. Wisdom comes from experience."

The Father of the Christmas Seal

Christmas seal of 1924

Little Patients Taking the Sun-Cure for Tuberculosis at an American Sanatorium.

Einar Holboell, inventor of the Christmas Seal.

"I saw at once that the Christmas stamp ought to be sold at postoffices and should cost only a trifle, so that everyone could afford to buy it. The well-to-do, who send many letters, would spend more money, but the poor could have the pleasure of helping, too."

"A committee of men of distinction was formed, and through their influence, I obtained the permission of the Ministry to sell the stamps at postoffices for the benefit of a fund to erect a hospital for tuberculous children. So a year after the idea came to me, the first tuberculosis Christmas stamps were sold in 1904."

"The return far exceeded our expectations, totalling 70,000 Danish crowns, or about $10,000. Year by year the income has increased. Last year it was 217,000 crowns, and during the twenty years they have been sold, a total sum of 2,700,000 crowns has been realized."

"Our committee has erected a hospital accommodating 165 tuberculous children, and since it was opened, a total of 3,000 little girls and boys have gone to the institution at Kolding Fjord and been healed. We now have three homes for weak and undernourished children, and besides have contributed generously to societies which aim to help sick and poor children in various ways."

The first sale in the United States was in 1907, when Miss Emily P. Bissell, of Wilmington, Delaware, adopted the idea to raise funds to maintain a tuberculosis shack of eight beds on the banks of the Brandywine, securing $3,000. She in turn, had read a magazine article by the great philanthropist, Jacob A. Riis, describing the Danish tuberculosis stamp he had received on the back of a letter from the city of his birth—Copenhagen.

Miss Bissell next aspired to extend the work by a national campaign, and interested the American Red Cross. The first national Christmas Seal sale occurred in 1908, and brought in $135,000. Each year since the sum has increased just as it has in Denmark.

Einar Holboell, the inventor of the Christmas Seal, could not possibly have foreseen its magic health value today, not only in raising funds to continue the work, but in carrying to millions of people every holiday season the stimulus to guard against disease. These tiny pieces of paper, multiplied a billion fold, have had an inestimable part in teaching the public that tuberculosis can be prevented—can be cured. The double-barrel cross which each one bears is the emblem of the anti-tuberculosis work throughout the world.

The Christmas seal has carried to the farthest parts of America the news that people need not die from tuberculosis. During the period the seal has been in existence, the death rate in this country from the disease has fallen from 198 per hundred thousand population to 95, a saving of over 100,000 lives this year.

Who would have guessed that Mr. Holboell's little penny Christmas Seal could grow to be so big?

Could Fiction Writers Find Anything Funnier?

The story of the British civil servant who, after ten years' absence from his office, returned to it to find that he had risen in salary and seniority while away, and was now a principal clerk, has its parallel in real life.

A certain young man became a member of the French civil service in 1922, and from that time a hat, a coat, and a pair of gloves at his desk bore mute testimony to his existence. This evidence was confirmed by his regularity in collecting his salary. But, otherwise, he was never seen or heard of at his office.

He was transferred to another office, and his hat, coat and gloves changed their quarters. But otherwise there was no change. Eventually it was discovered that he was a professional dancer, and was too busy to attend the office.

The authorities were shocked, and resolved that the young man must be punished. But the only possible punishments were dismissal and reduction in grade. The first seemed too severe; as for the second, the young man was already in the lowest grade. Finally, the Gordin knot was cut—the young man was promoted, and then immediately reduced to his former status.

We go to the movies and see scenes arranged to impress us with the luxury of the old Roman baths in use 2,000 years ago; and very few of us realize how superior the up-to-date bathroom is to those costly ancient edifices. So says a well-known maker of up-to-date bathrooms.

The Roman baths, he continues, were built as a rule, by the emperors, their cost being too great for a private individual. Crude and clumsy was the method by which the water was heated and carried from one pool to another. Although it was changed continually, every one bathed in the same water, and soap was unknown. The baths were open only at certain hours of the day, an admission price was charged and their use was limited to

Live in Fear of "Devils"

In practically all parts of New Guinea the natives believe that the "tamarangs" or evil spirits come out as soon as it is dark and are constantly on the watch for stray negroes, says the Detroit News. Fortunately, however, the devils are quite unable to pass fire at night, so a village is protected by a ring of small fires about it. Sometimes the fires are placed in a circle around the settlement and sometimes just four are made, one at each corner of the place. Inside this protective belt the negro has no fear whatever of the "tamarangs," but in the case of the bush natives especially all the tinneed meat and jew's-harps in New Guinea would not tempt him outside it before dawn in districts known to be afflicted with devils.

Belief Seems Justified

A Greenville (Me.) newspaper says that it is a very old Indian tradition that all the bull moose of eastern and northern Maine make journeys to the west shores of Moosehead lake at the close of the year for the purpose of casting their antlers. "Though the story has passed for fiction among the residents, there are not a few old hunters and woodsmen who believe it, and relate tales about the abundance of moose antlers among the maple woods 25 miles north of this village."

Tempered Criticism

He was only twelve, but he contrived to throw the apple of discord into the boarding-house to which he had been sent for convalescence after influenza.

It came about because they all read the postcard he had left on the hall table.

He had written: "There are three extraordinary old geeseers stopping here, but one of them is rather a decent old geeseer as geeseers go."

SELFISH MARRIED COUPLES KEEP DOWN BIRTH RATE HERE

NEBRASKAN WANTS TO CANCEL
MARRIAGES WHERE NO CHILD
IS BORN IN TWO YEARS

CHILDREN OF FOREIGN-BORN IN-HABITANTS MAY SOON PRE-
DOMINATE IN U. S.

Note—The recent announcement of Dr. Pinto, health commissioner of Omaha, that he would present the legislature of Nebraska with a bill to cancel all marriages in which no child was born in two years, created a widespread argument and general interest. In the following article written by Dr. Pinto for the United Press he explains and enlarges upon his ideas.

By DR. A. S. PINTO,
Omaha Health Commissioner
(Written for the United Press)

Omaha, Dec. 16.—Selfishness of young married couples is threatening native stock and unless some drastic steps are taken children of our foreign-born inhabitants will soon predominate in the United States.

It was with this idea in mind that I made my recent statement advocating divorces after two years if no children were born.

Although very few people seem to agree with me, I am sticking by my guns.

The chief reason for the decreasing birth rate among our native stock is married women in industry. A very large percentage of our young people are now marrying with only selfish ends in view.

Both husband and wife keep on working and living in crowded apartments or family hotels with no idea of raising a family in their minds.

This is producing the "clinging vine" type of husband. As long as the wife continues working the husband depends more and more on her earnings to maintain the household. Husbands are like that—they will lean if given a chance. This is one of the worst features of the entire situation. Woman's forte in life is to bear children. That is what she is here for. There is no getting around the fact.

No man has the right to marry without being able to support a wife. By support I do not mean in the style in which the girl has been accustomed in her father's home. Too many young folks want to start out where their parents finished.

One hundred dollars a month is enough to marry on provided the couple is really in earnest. They cannot live in fashionable apartments on that sum, of course, but if they are in earnest they will endure some little hardships until the husband's income has been increased. Apartments are curses—divorce breeders—and should be shunned by newly-weds.

Four children should be the minimum in a family. Married people having less than that number are shirking their duty to society. Two children merely reproduce father and mother and cause a shrinkage in population in case of the death of one of the children.

CRUISER RETURNS WITH THE PROOF OF MURDER OF WOMAN

14, in a cabin which she had reached just three days before, on her honeymoon. Her husband and Conrad Hagen, owner of the cabin, returned from a trip down to the lake shore, to find her lying on the cabin floor, a butcher knife driven into her side.

Hagen and Jake Coulson of Clearwater, Kan., who went into the woods with the Wheelers, planning like them to build a home in the wilderness, left the cabin immediately and struggled for 36 hours through snow storms and bitter cold to Warroad, nearest outpost of civilization, 100 miles away. Wheeler was left alone with the body of his bride. Deputies and the coroner reached the Hagen cabin five days after the murder.

Body Carried Through Woods
A coroner's jury was hastily impaneled. Finding no trace of an attacker, the jury decided she had fallen upon the butcher knife—a knife she carried to the woods from Kansas—and gave a verdict of accidental death. The deputies and Wheeler, following a 110 mile trail in which they did not once touch a road, chopped their way through underbrush and carried two automobiles across marsh and muskeg and rocky wastes to take Mrs. Wheeler's body back to Warroad.

After Mrs. Wheeler's sister, Dean Wheeler, and his father had left for Kansas, physicians found a two inch long gash in Mrs. Wheeler's scalp, which they said could not have been self-inflicted. Abandoning the theory of accidental death, Mr. Middleton sent the old woodsman into the forests to take up the two weeks' old trail.

The warrant issued Saturday was the outcome of his investigations.

OFFICERS BELIEVED TO HAVE SUSPECT

Warroad, Minn., Dec. 16.—Across the trackless waste of the Northwest Angle country, buffeted by 20 below zero wind out of the northwest, two officers of the law today are believed to be on their way here with a man accused of the murder of Mrs. Elsie Wheeler.

Sheriff Thomas Slind and Fay Young went into the Angle last Sunday in search of Tony Reamer, trapper, carrying a warrant charging him with the crime.

Reamer was accused after an investigation of the murder had been made by an old backwoodsman who found a blood stained towel and a wisp of Mrs. Wheeler's hair on a nail in the cabin where she was killed. A butcher knife was found in her body when her husband, Dean Wheeler, and Carl Hagen returned from Lake of the Woods.

The Wheelers went into the Angle country early in November from their farm in Kansas. Reamer, it developed, had known Mrs. Wheeler in her younger days.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 16.—The demurrer filed by the Baltimore Post in its indictment for publishing income tax payments was sustained today by United States Judge Soper.

The court has had the case under advisement since Dec. 9th, when arguments were presented by Attorney Woodcock and Newton D. Baker, general counsel for the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

The Baltimore Post was the first newspaper indicted for income tax publicity, but two others, the New York Herald-Tribune and the Kansas City Journal-Post, already have won verdicts. All were test cases designed for eventual decision by the United States supreme court.

POPE A GOOD LANDLORD; RENTS NEVER RAISED

(By United Press)
Rome, Dec. 16.—Pope Plus XI is a landlord and, by all standards of good landlords, is a perfect one. He never raises the rent.

Italian rents have quintupled and sexrupted during the past years. Tenants occupying any of the buildings under the administration of the Holy See, however, have suffered nothing from rent increase. They pay the same rent as before the war. The sums are nominal when compared to present-day prices.

There are tenants occupying small apartments who pay as low as two or three dollars a month. For the same places today, judging by other prices on the market, they would pay twenty or thirty dollars a month. Nevertheless, they continue unaffected either by the deflation of Italian currency or by the general rise in prices prevalent all over the world.

Recently, the great and historic palace of Propaganda Fide was sold. Tenants had occupied this palace for decades. A number of stores also were rented. The new landlords, at the first act of taking possession, increased the rent five to six times what it had been. In other palaces divided into living apartments under jurisdiction of the prelates, the rent continues on the old basis, but the poor tenants who suffer a change of landlords enjoy no more the benefits of papal beneficence.

The tenants of Propaganda Fide are faced with a serious problem. They have lived for years on meager incomes, but forced to seek houses on the open market, find themselves unable to cope with the rent problem. The storekeepers of the palace also consider going out of business.

Italian rents had been kept at the pre-war level for four years after the war. The government prevented any raising of rents by law. Under the Mussolini administration, a decree was passed restoring open prices on rents and tenants forthwith had their rents raised, but papal tenants continue to enjoy papal beneficence.

GETTING RESULTS FROM GYM WORK

Considering the amount of time spent emphasizing good posture it is undoubtedly the most important feature in the gym work. The girls have drilled and drilled until they have straightened up their backs considerably.

Girls of the best posture have been chosen from each class. The girls consider it a great honor to be chosen as an example as there are from thirty to fifty girls in each class. They are chosen for six weeks when the test will be given over again giving those who improve in posture an opportunity to be examples.

In order to encourage good marching the four best marchers are chosen to represent the six divisions. These four girls from each division will also hold their positions for six weeks.

These girls are not chosen only for superior marching, but they can take command and carry them out correctly.

Here they are. Prove it for yourselves:

First Division—Miriam Michael, Esther Bentley, Sadie Olson, Helen Davis.

EDITORIAL

I cannot but wonder at resentment which an order, even though pleasantly given, arouses in some breasts. Some men are immediately angered by the assignment of a task which does not happen to agree with their plans or inclinations.

That the request comes from a person of deserved power and authority does not seem to matter. Perhaps he has been elected to his present position by these very people. They would willingly admit that of all possible candidates he was the best for the place. On thoughtfully considering the matter for a moment, they would acknowledge that this request was quite within his authority. In fact, oftentimes such an order is necessary for the performance of his duties.

Confusion reigns in an organization where orders are obeyed in a surly, sullen manner. I have a friend who is unable to carry out any of his plans because his subordinates resent the duties allotted to them. They either refuse to perform the tasks, or undertake them in such a half-hearted way that nothing is accomplished. This places the whole burden on the shoulders of the leader. Imagine one person trying to do so many things that a dozen would be over-burdened by the task!

In another organization to which I belong, the members are willing and glad to do everything they can to help in carrying out our plans and purpose. As a result, everything goes smoothly and we accomplish more than many people, and do it in much less time. We all enjoy our part in the work and are proud of all that we have accomplished.

EXTRY! EXTRY! WHO KISSED BARBARA?

Who sniffed, where, when, and why will all be disclosed at the Brainonian plays on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the High School. Bring your best sniffer along if you wish to detect the "why" and "what," for you will have to compete with the best sniffers in captivity, the H. S. students in the play. These artists have worked long and loud at sniffing so be at the H. S. to see them in action. The other play is "something different" and is "all there." Come to the plays and have a look-look-look or two. Only 2 cents. Yup, thassall! C'mon Skinny! Let's go! Shake the pennies from the ill' tin bank and hit the trail for the B. H. S. on Wednesday night.

It hits the spot—
For young and old—
"Who Kissed Barbara?"
Pep! Pep! Pep!—O!
Signing off—B. H. S.

AIN'T NATURE GRAND

Everyone has heard of crossword puzzles. In fact, people who have not heard of them are as scarce as trout in a rain barrel or as the whiskers are on M. S.'s chin.

The puzzles are becoming so complicated that frantic workers are calling up the high school for information. As Miss Tornstrom is usually busy we will have to call for volunteer vocabulary sharks to keep the office chairs warm, answering crossword puzzle calls.

The Latin classes were given a puzzle to be filled in with Latin words and by all reports seems to have been "the best ever." A rumor is circulated saying that Bun Mraz worked more than two hours on it! All the teachers are wishing that he would spend that much time on each of his school lessons.

Miss Tornstrom thinks that all English students should take crossword puzzles up as a means of enlarging their vocabularies. We all agree with her, but wonder where we can get some one to help us when the dictionary fails in our needs as to what "a letter of defiance" is or who the "Egyptian God of War" was. We also hope we won't get goofy upon discovering after half an hour of concentrated attention that the "personal pronoun (fem.)" is "she" and not "her." Alright, bring on your puzzles, we aim to please or satisfy.

FRESHMAN PLEDGE

I.
You may hand it to the Freshmen Of the B. H. School,
But there isn't a one of us Who can be called a fool.
We may look green and be dizzy In the head,
But why not? you walk over us As if we were dead.

II.
Let me ask you a question My dears, each and all,
How did you become a Soph, Junior Or Senior at all.
Why you were first a Freshman So meek and so fair,
So please lay aside That haughty air.

III.
We will make a pledge The Freshman class of '24,
That we will do a little better, Than those of yore.
Wait till we get started And see the great things we're going to be and do,
But we won't put on haughty airs And look the look of "Who are you?"

CHRISTMAS SEALS

The old saying that "to give is more blessed than to receive," is especially true at Christmas time. One of the most practical ways of giving to the needy is to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals.

The cost of these seals is very small, and yet they accomplish a great deal of good. The money collected is used for a very worthy cause. The seals are very useful for decorating packages and envelopes, giving quite a festive appearance to such articles. One ordinarily buys many seals for packages; buy the Red Cross Seals to help out the poor and needy. It will give you a little of the real Christmas spirit.

BRAINLESS BITS

Jokes, jokes, jokes,
Come on now, you folks,

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR BRAINERD H. S.

Last Friday night, the B. H. S. basketball team added another victory to their record by defeating the fast Staples quint on the latter's floor by a score of 24-22.

The battle waged fast and furious from the opening whistle to the end, neither team gaining an advantage of more than three points at any time. The point of advantage went first to Staples and then to Brainerd until the last few minutes of play with the score 22-21 in Staples' favor. Then the locals opened their last minute attack, Dieckhaus with a free throw which tied the count. With less than a minute left to play, Enghretson sank a long shot from the middle of the floor putting Brainerd in the lead which they kept for the remainder of the game.

Brainerd clearly outclassed their opponents in every department of the game and although the final score was always in doubt, there was none whatever concerning the best team on the floor that evening.

The game was featured by the speedy aggressive attack of the local cagers and the remarkable defense work of Dieckhaus and Tribur for Brainerd, Enghretson with seven field goals led the scoring.

The Brainerd team was greatly encouraged by the number of local fans who did much by their cheering to win the game.

GETTING RESULTS FROM GYM WORK

Considering the amount of time spent emphasizing good posture it is undoubtedly the most important feature in the gym work. The girls have drilled and drilled until they have straightened up their backs considerably.

Girls of the best posture have been chosen from each class. The girls consider it a great honor to be chosen as an example as there are from thirty to fifty girls in each class. They are chosen for six weeks when the test will be given over again giving those who improve in posture an opportunity to be examples.

In order to encourage good marching the four best marchers are chosen to represent the six divisions. These four girls from each division will also hold their positions for six weeks.

These girls are not chosen only for superior marching, but they can take command and carry them out correctly.

Here they are. Prove it for yourselves:

First Division—Miriam Michael, Esther Bentley, Sadie Olson, Helen Davis.

The Comet's Tale, Little Falls, Minn.—The Seniors won the debate on "The League of Nations," upholding the negative side.

The Rah! Rah!, Two Harbors, Minn.—Two very clever cartoons on football and basketball drawn by one of the students.

Litchfield High News, Litchfield, Minn.—The boys alone have put out an issue of the school paper, which is a very clever one. The girls will do the same later on. A very good idea.

Central High News, Minneapolis, Minn.—The Senior Class Play, "Dulcy," will be given Dec. 12, at the high school gym.

Miss Tornstrom: "Why were you late?"

Her answer: "Had to wait for a freight. Every morning, every noon. Always, always, the same old tune. At half past three, Report to me. We don't get home until six. And then we're in another mix! Because for supper we are late. For the same old thing—Another freight!"

Miss Oerting: "Write a sentence using the word 'discourse'."

EDITORIAL

I cannot but wonder at resentment which an order, even though pleasantly given, arouses in some breasts.

Some men are immediately angered by the assignment of a task which does not happen to agree with their plans or inclinations.

That the request comes from a person of deserved power and authority does not seem to matter. Perhaps he has been elected to his present position by these very people. They would willingly admit that of all possible candidates he was the best for the place. On thoughtfully considering the matter for a moment, they would acknowledge that this request was quite within his authority. In fact, oftentimes such an order is necessary for the performance of his duties.

Confusion reigns in an organization where orders are obeyed in a surly, sullen manner. I have a friend who is unable to carry out any of his plans because his subordinates resent the duties allotted to them. They either refuse to perform the tasks, or undertake them in such a half-hearted way that nothing is accomplished. This places the whole burden on the shoulders of the leader. Imagine one person trying to do so many things that a dozen would be over-burdened by the task!

In another organization to which I belong, the members are willing and glad to do everything they can to help in carrying out our plans and purpose. As a result, everything goes smoothly and we accomplish more than many people, and do it in much less time. We all enjoy our part in the work and are proud of all that we have accomplished.

"CLASSMATES" AT LAST NEW PARK THEATRE

It's here! "Classmates," the wonderful, thrilling, unique production of the movie world. Yes sir, we mean it! On January 19, 20 and 21st it will be at the New Park theatre. Dick Barthelmess in all his splendor, and Madge Evans with her winsome charm ready to captivate the hearts of all.

No doubt many were perplexed and mystified at the appearance of the articles "Coup D'Etat" and Junior "Mobility" and now it is all explained! When this affair is Junior history who won't say that it was indeed a "Coup de grace?"

Mobility, excitement, everything that is startling, and of public interest, is combined to make up this marvelous, new picture.

How could anyone miss seeing "Our Dick, our hero," in his new role, that of a cadet at West Point! Above all else, it is most unusual, as never before.

COUNCIL GRANTS SMRAKER LICENSE

Action Taken After Considerable Discussion Regarding Measure

TWO MINISTERS OBJECTING

Police Committee Wanted Further Time for Its Investigation

The city council at its regular meeting on Monday night, voted to grant a pool hall license to Andrew Smraker and H. B. Sande, after some discussion for and against the proposition.

The police committee, into whose hands this matter was placed for investigation at the last meeting of the council, requested further time in which to report on the matter of granting a license for the operation of the pool hall.

A motion of Aldermen Wesley and Ritari was made to issue this license. The chairman of the police committee went on record as objecting to a vote on such a motion over the committee's request to make a further investigation. Rev. E. A. Cooke of the Methodist church, and Rev. O. S. Winther of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, protested against the issuance of this license, quoting cases in the recent term of the district court and the report of the grand jury at this term of court.

Tie Vote Resulted

The chairman of the police committee asked for an aye and nay vote upon the motion to grant a license which was as follows: Favoring the license, Aldermen Ritari, Wesley, Witham and C. H. Paine; against issuing the license, Aldermen Cain, Holmstrom, Quannstrom and Michael. A tie being declared Mayor C. O'Brien was called in to cast the deciding vote, which he did, in favor of granting the license, and said license was ordered issued.

The chairman of the police committee reported on the investigation of his committee into the granting of a license for a pool hall in North-east Brainerd which report was against the issuance of such a license. On motion the report was accepted and the report of the committee adopted, the council declining to issue a license for this pool hall.

Street Decorations

Alderman Wesley offered an amendment to city ordinance No. 98 to permit of street decorations on legal holidays, and this amendment was given its first reading on Monday evening.

Requests were received for milk licenses from the following dairies: Oscar Emilson, Mrs. H. B. Olson, J. C. Spillman, Mrs. H. Tangen, Gust Erickson, L. J. Erickson, W. D. McKay, Alex Markee, J. Soderlund, J. Selen and S. A. Stanley. On motion carried licenses were ordered issued to each applicant.

W. H. Nelson requested that his taxi license be renewed, and upon motion this license was ordered granted.

Paying Aldermen Salary

The special committee appointed at the last meeting of the council to take up the suggestions of the mayor in regard to meetings of the council only once per month, and paying aldermen $10 for each meeting, also the changing of pool hall licenses, requested further time in which to report, which was granted.

The matter of plumbers' licenses was again discussed at Monday evening's meeting and it was the sense of the council that no action be taken at this time, but that the matter be taken up again in January in connection with the proposed building ordinance.

Paving Business Section Alleys

A report was asked for the next meeting of the council from the city engineer and city attorney in regard to paving of alleys in the downtown district.

The council discussed the matter of taking care of families of men serving time for liquor violations, and while no definite action was taken, it was the opinion of the members that these families should not receive aid from the city's poor fund.

November Tax Settlement

The finance committee reported the receipt of the November tax settlement from Crow Wing county.

The usual bills were allowed, subject to the approval of the finance committee. All members of the council were present except Aldermen R. H. Paine and A. D. Peterson.

Graham or Blair was arrested in Flatbush River, Mo., early this week and brought back to answer a charge of abduction and seduction of a 13 year old Pillager girl. The search for Graham began last July and covered three states.

CHRISTMAS SEALS SOLD IN THE CITY

STAMPS AID HEALTH WORK

Every Penny Helps in the Campaign. Every One Can Do Something

Christmas Seals can be purchased in Brainerd at the following business houses for this week only: First National bank, H. F. Michael Co. and O'Brien Mercantile Co. School children will also have seals for sale.

"Unbought Christmas Seals Save no Lives," is the admonition of local workers. Every one that remains unsold means less health work for next year.

Every penny helps in this campaign and because the seals are so cheap, everyone can do something. The committee wants to make this sale a record breaking one for this community. Every piece of mail deposited in the post office from now until New Years should bear one of the little health stamps. Pennies, nickels or dollars are welcome—no amount is too small to be of assistance.

Local health work, including free clinics, the purchase of health books and scales for the schools, health lectures, exhibits and motion pictures, examination of school children, are among the projects that this community may have if sufficient funds are raised through the sale of the Christmas Seals.

CHRISTMAS PLAN GAINING FAVOR

Seek to Bring Santa Claus to Kiddies of Destitute Families in City

ORGANIZATIONS ASSISTING

Miss Eula Michael, Campfire Girls to Aid the Lions Club

The Brainerd Lions club Christmas plan for the kiddies of destitute families in the city, is gaining in momentum and general favor. Miss Eula Michael and the Campfire Girls have offered their assistance, and it is felt that other organizations as well as individuals will want to get behind this movement to furnish used toys for Brainerd children who would otherwise know little of the Christmas spirit this year.

Miss Michael is compiling a list of names of such children for the use of the Lions club. She already has quite a list and expects to add to it materially. Local people who know of destitute families whose kiddies are likely to have a toyless Christmas this year, are asked to submit these names to Miss Michael, for the club does not wish to pass by any deserving families.

The Campfire Girls will give of their time in repairing broken toys that come in and getting them ready for distribution. Some of these toys have already been mended by the girls, who are very enthusiastic about their part in this program.

The big requisite now is toys. It will take a great many toys to bring a merry Christmas to local kiddies, and Brainerd citizens are asked to ransack their homes for discarded playthings. Toys of every description, regardless of their state of dilapidation, if they can be repaired they will be gratefully received. The club feels that there are many such toys in the homes of the city which have no more usefulness there, but which will bring a great deal of joy to some boy or girl in a destitute family. Just telephone Miss Michael or County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy of the Lion club, and a member of the committee will call for the offerings.

The time is very short in which to complete this work, so it will be necessary that the toys be gathered within the next few days. Those that need repairing will be given attention and Santa Claus will deliver the good cheer to the children on Christmas eve.

Plans are going forward rapidly for the community Christmas tree which the Lions club proposes to install in the business section of the city. The only difficulty seems to be the finding of a tree large enough for use out-of-doors. The club feels that it will take a big one to adequately express the holiday spirit which it is intended to convey.

The tree will be decorated and lighted during the Christmas week and if the weather permits the Lions club may hold a short Christmas program at the site on Wednesday evening, Dec. 24th. Announcement of this feature will be made later.

"Well, where?"

"Here and there."

"Let's walk together hither and thither," and Coats took McClosky to jail.

"When do I get out of here?" wailed McClosky.

"Sooner or later," growled the desk sergeant.

The Better Half

"Do I understand you to say," asked the magistrate, "that when you heard a noise you quickly got out of bed, turned on the light, and went to the head of the stairs—that a burglar was at the foot of the stairs and you did not see him? Are you blind?"

"Must I tell the exact truth?" asked the witness, as he mopped his perspiring face and blushed furiously.

"Yes, sir, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

"Well," replied the man, slowly, "my wife was in front of me."—The Bits (London).

Too Realistic

"Did you enjoy the amateur dramatic show last night?"

"Well, I thought it was too realistic."

BASKETBALL COMES IN AS FOOTBALL GOES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 16.—With the football season out of the way for another year, basketball jumps into first place in intercollegiate athletic circles. With an astonishing increase of interest in the game it is reasonable to assume that the popular court game will share in the great public patronage that made football the ranking national sport of 1924.

Stiff competition which made the football season so interesting in the various conferences is promised also for the basketball season.

The championship in the Eastern Intercollegiate League is looked upon as being wide open. Cornell, winner of the title last season, has two veterans back and a flock of fine new material.

Princeton and Columbia have veteran teams, and Dartmouth has seven players left from last year's squad. Yale has only three players left and Pennsylvania has only a few reliable veterans.

Ohio State, with last year's team intact, is regarded as the favorite for the Western Conference championship, with Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin looked upon as serious contenders.

The break in relations between California and Stanford with the University of Southern California has upset the situation on the Pacific Coast. Under the conditions Southern California will have to confine its competition to the Pacific Northwest Conference.

Even though Southern California will not have the chance to figure in the championship of the coast's "Big Three," the team may be good enough to win enough games to warrant the claiming of the sectional championship.

California won the championship last year and is looked upon as the favorite to repeat.

In the confusion of a great season that was marked by exciting inter-sectional competition and brilliant football, many teams deserving of notice were overlooked.

The Centre College team, one of the big heroes of a few years ago, was one of them and it seems that in discussing the leading sectional teams that Centre has not been treated justly.

Bill Roper Considering
$20,000-a-Year Job

St. Louis, Dec. 16.—Bill Roper, Princeton football coach, is considering an offer that is reported to be $20,000 a year to coach football at Washington university here and to join the faculty of the law school.

University officials admitted that Roper could have as much money as he wanted and they said that he was trying to decide whether he should give up his business in Philadelphia to accept the offer.

As soon as the preliminary contest between the Hi-Y Club and the Y.M.C.A. Cubs, scheduled for 7:30, is over, the Rainbows and Independents take the court. If the Independents win, they will have the early season championship, by virtue of their previous defeat of the Y.M.C.A. two weeks ago. If the Rainbows get the long end of the score, a triple tie will result, as they went down before the fast playing of the Y.M.C.A. last week, in two overtime periods. Whatever the outcome, the spectators will feel glad they went. A fast game is evident, and both teams are rarin' to go. Tomorrow night the Rainbows entrain for Aitkin to do battle with the fast Aitkin Independents. Basketball seems to be taking a good hold on the interest of the local people, and everyone is urged to come out for tonight's contests. Remember, the first game starts at 7:30.

CHICAGO HAS A BIG YEAR IN EVERY SPORT

Chicago, Dec. 16.—While eastern experts are raving about Yale's great showing in athletics for 1924, University of Chicago begs to be heard.

True, Yale did have a big year with three major team championships, two minor titles and two individual crowns.

But listen to the claims of Chicago seven championships and all of them team affairs.

Chicago tied with Illinois and Wisconsin for basketball honors, pulling a great comeback in this sport.

Then there was the Big Ten football title, the most coveted of western conference athletic honors.

In addition, Chicago captured tennis, gymnastic, swimming, fencing and golfing championships.

So that while 1924 was a big year for Yale, it was a bigger one for Chicago.

Robinson To Submit
To Surgeon's Knife

Baltimore, Dec. 16.—Wilbert H. Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, will be operated on today at the Union Memorial hospital.

He was reported to have spent a comfortable day yesterday and Dr. J. M. T. Finney, following the taking of an X-ray, announced an operation necessary when it was found one of Robinson's lungs was affected.

Auto Speed Body
Honors Jimmy Murphy

Culver City, Calif., Dec. 16.—Jimmy Murphy, who was killed in an exhibition race in Syracuse several months ago, was given a posthumous award of the national speed driving automobile championship after the last race of the season's competition here.

Bennett Hill won the 250-mile before 60,000 spectators in the new bowl when he went the distance in 1:58:18 3-5 for an average of 129.6 miles an hour.

Harry Hartz was second and Tommy Milton third.

VANCE BOASTS
GREAT SEASON
FOR STRIKEOUTS

New York, Dec. 16.—Dazzy Vance, star Brooklyn pitcher, voted the most valuable player in the National league, sure had a big season in the matter of strikeouts.

Vance, while winning 28 and losing only six games, struck out 262 batters, a remarkable feat in these days of the "rabbit" ball.

Only one National league pitcher struck out 15 men in one game. It was Vance. He was the only pitcher to strike out 14 in a game. He also struck out eleven men four times.

Two pitchers managed to whiff 10 in a game, and again Vance was one of them. He turned the trick twice, his teammate, Grimes, once.

There were eight National league games in which nine players were set down on strikes, and Vance worked seven of them, Sothern of St. Louis the other.

Quite enough for one season.

Police Dogs "Wolfish"

The police dogs are not a distinct breed, but are shepherd dogs police trained. The German police dog should stand 22 to 26 inches at the shoulder and show in every line the qualities which he is supposed to possess—intelligence, alertness, loyalty, gentleness, courage, obedience, willingness and devotion. While the standard allows great range of color, those most often seen in this country are of the so-called "wolf" colors, dark tipping of hair over a tawny or buff ground. The muzzle (unlike that of a wolf) is usually blackish. Both the German and Belgian dogs may be divided into three general types—namely, rough-haired, wire-haired and smooth-haired. By their erect ears and general expression they betray their near relationship to the wolf.

Honest at Least

Her blond prettiness and dainty attire attracted a woman as she stood beside her in the public library. From her chic satin hat to her trim little shoes she was the last word in feminine smartness.

She had asked the librarian for the most widely read book of the day and the librarian was doubtful whether there was a copy in at present, but after searching a few moments returned and handed her the desired book.

"Oh, goodness, no! It has too many pages; I heard so much about it I just thought I should read it, but that's too much of a job," and thanking the girl very sweetly, tripped out of the building, leaving a faint trace of perfume and a wide-eyed librarian behind her.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up, your head is clear; no more yawning or sniffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.

First came Jack Mulhall in "With-in the Law." Then Conway Tearle in "Ashes of Vengeance." Tarle was followed by Joseph Schildkraut in "The Song of Love."
Last came "the perfect lover," Eugene O'Brien, who appears as Norma's leading man in "Secrets," which will be shown at the New Park tonight and Wednesday, which, it is expected, will excel even "Smilin' Through" as a popular and artistic success.

Leading Golfers Go Up in the Air—but in Planes

Three of the world's leading golfers, Walter Hagen, Chick Evans and Joe Kirkwood, had never really been up in the air until they reached Wichita, Kans., to compete in the mid-continent open golf tournament. After the tourney the men remained over a day in order to take in the national air races. The following day they were taken to Tulsa in army planes. They are pictured above just before the start. The police dogs are not a distinct breed, but are shepherd dogs police trained. The German police dog should stand 22 to 25 inches at the shoulder and show in every line the qualities which he is supposed to possess—intelligence, alertness, loyalty, gentleness, courage, obedience, willingness and devotion. While the standard allows great range of color, those most often seen in this country are of the so-called "wolf" colors, dark tipping of hair over a tawny or buff ground. The muzzle (unlike that of a wolf) is usually blackish. Both the German and Belgian dogs may be divided into three general types—namely, rough-haired, wire-haired and smooth-haired. By their erect ears and general expression they betray their near relationship to the wolf.

Honest at Least

Her blond prettiness and dainty attire attracted a woman as she stood beside her in the public library. From her chic satin hat to her trim little shoes she was the last word in feminine smartness.

She had asked the librarian for the most widely read book of the day and the librarian was doubtful whether there was a copy in at present, but after searching a few moments returned and handed her the desired book.

"Oh, goodness, no! It has too many pages; I heard so much about it I just thought I should read it, but that's too much of a job," and thanking the girl very sweetly, tripped out of the building, leaving a faint trace of perfume and a wide-eyed librarian behind her.

CREAM CLEARS A
STUFFED-UP HEADInstantly Opens Every Air Passage—
Clears Throat

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes, and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up, your head is clear; no more hacking or sniffing. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.

Leading Golfers Go Up in the Air—but in Planes

Three of the world's leading golfers, Walter Hagen, Chick Evans and Joe Kirkwood, had never really been up in the air until they reached Wichita, Kans., to compete in the mid-continent open golf tournament. After the tourney the men remained over a day in order to take in the national air races. The following day they were taken to Tulsa in army planes. They are pictured above just before the start. Left to right—Chick Evans, Maj. H. S. Burwell, Joe Kirkwood, Lieut. J. B. Haddon, Walter Hagen, and Lieut. L. R. Robinson.
